Guide A. What are the benefits available by designating beneficiaries on Form 2FR?

Return of (Undistributed) Contributions Benefit

Effective July 1, 2018, if any firefighter or rescue squad worker dies, except if the individual is killed in the line of duty, contributions made by you or on your behalf to the Pension Fund, plus any amount you paid to purchase retirement credit, will be distributed to the beneficiary(ies) you designate. Your beneficiary(ies) is entitled to these contributions whether or not you are in active service at the time.

Any beneficiary must meet the requirements in Guide B. You may change your beneficiary(ies) for this benefit at any time by completing a new Form 2FR.

You may list one or multiple principal beneficiaries, but be aware of how your choice may affect benefits payable in the event you are killed in the line of duty.

See your Retirement Benefits handbook located on our website at www.myNCRetirement.com for further information.

- If you choose to designate one principal beneficiary, you may designate one or multiple contingent beneficiary(ies).
- If you list multiple beneficiaries in any case, you may not assign percentages of the Return of Contributions to any individual; the benefit will be divided equally among multiple beneficiaries.

Survivorship Benefit

Effective July 1, 2018, if you are killed in the line of duty as determined by the North Carolina Industrial Commission, and you have one and ONLY one principal beneficiary that is eligible and has not accepted a return of undistributed contributions, your living beneficiary may choose to receive a monthly lifetime benefit (known as the Survivorship Benefit), rather than a one-time payment (known as a return of Undistributed Contributions). It is important to note that your estate for the Survivorship Benefit.

Guide B. What is the Guaranteed Refund?

The Guaranteed Refund feature provides that if you die before exhausting the total of your remaining undistributed contributions, any remaining portion will be paid in a lump sum payment to the beneficiary(ies) you designate.

If all of your undistributed contributions have been exhausted, your monthly benefit will continue, if applicable, but the Guaranteed Refund will not be payable.

Guide C. What are the different types of beneficiary(ies) I can select?

A principal beneficiary will be the first person(s) that you select to receive a benefit payment after your death. You may choose one or multiple principal beneficiaries. A contingent beneficiary will be the person(s) who will be paid only if all principal beneficiaries are deceased at the time of your death. You do not have to select any contingent beneficiaries, but if you do, you must select a principal beneficiary. Please see Guide A for information on multiple beneficiaries and potential impacts to your benefit.

You have the option to designate as a beneficiary:

- One living person.
- More than one living person to share the benefit equally.
- Your estate. Write ESTATE in the Last Name box under Section B.

Here are some guidelines you should follow when selecting beneficiaries:

- You must supply the name, Social Security number and date of birth for each beneficiary listed.
- Although there is no limit to the number of principal and contingent beneficiaries you may choose, you must choose at least one principal beneficiary before a contingent can be chosen.
- If you list multiple beneficiaries, you may not assign percentages of the benefit to any individual; the benefit will be divided equally among the beneficiaries.
- If you elect multiple beneficiaries, they will only be eligible for the Undistributed Contributions and the Survivorship Benefit will not be an option.
- If you elect you estate a principal beneficiary, your estate will only be eligible for the Undistributed Contributions and the Survivorship Benefit will not be an option.
- Your beneficiary(ies) cannot be an unborn child, a pet, a church, or institution.
- You don't need permission from the beneficiary(ies) to make or change the designation; however, if a court order directs you to designate someone as a beneficiary, you must comply with the order.
- You don't have to make your beneficiary(ies) aware of this designation.
- You don't have to name relatives as beneficiary(ies).

Guide D. How is this benefit paid to my beneficiary(ies)?

After your death is reported and a certified copy of the death certificate is received, the Retirement Systems Division will determine what benefits are payable. Any benefit will be paid to your principal beneficiary(ies), but if your principal beneficiaries are deceased at the time of your death, the benefit will be paid to any contingent beneficiary(ies). If you chose multiple co-beneficiaries and one is deceased at the time of your death, the benefit will be paid to the surviving co-beneficiary(ies).

If a beneficiary is a minor, payment will be made to the qualified guardian of the minor, the Clerk of Courts in the county where the minor lives, or the minor after he/she reaches the age of majority. (Generally, the age of majority in North Carolina is 18.)

If you named your estate as your beneficiary, or if no named principal or contingent beneficiary is alive at your death, payment will be made to your legal representative (usually your estate).
