Section C. Please review the eligibility requirements specified by law for these purchases.

The following requirements must be met to purchase retirement credit for erroneously omitted service or for purchasing contributions for underreported compensation:

TSERS: You were full-time, working the number of hours per day, number of days per week, and number of months required of a permanent full-time employee in a similar position.

LGERS: You performed work on a schedule that regularly required at least 1,000 hours of work per year.

(3) You are not required to be a currently contributing member of the System in Section B and cannot be retired if purchasing erroneously omitted retirement system credit; however, if you are purchasing contributions for underreported compensation, your retirement status is not an eligibility requirement. If you do not meet all of the above requirements, do not submit this form.

See Form 470 for purchasing service credit for an LGERS waiting period.

Guide A. Why should I purchase retirement credit?

The amount of your retirement benefit is directly related to how much retirement credit you have. Most retirement credit is earned by making contributions to the Retirement System while working and receiving pay from an employer covered by the Retirement System, but some circumstances exist where a purchase of credit is allowed by North Carolina retirement law and may be to your advantage. Form 466 addresses the purchase which may be allowable if you were obligated to make contributions and receive credit but the contributions were not made through some error [see G.S. 135-4(v) or 128-26(m)], or your salary was underreported [see G.S. 135-8(b2) or 128-30(b2)]. For other circumstances, see Guide D.

If this period of service meets the requirements given in Section C of this form, you may be interested in purchasing this retirement service credit. In some cases, the increase in retirement credit from a purchase will result in an increase to your retirement benefit. In other cases, a purchase of additional service will allow you to retire at an earlier age. It could also eliminate or reduce reduction factors that cause your retirement benefit to be reduced because of retirement at too young an age.

If you make a purchase, you are guaranteed that the cost of the purchase (less the $25 administrative fee for making the purchase) will be refunded to you if you decide to withdraw all of your service and contributions from the Retirement System at a later date. Similarly, if you die before retiring, or you die in retirement but before receiving benefits equaling the contributions and purchases you made, your beneficiary(ies) will be entitled to the undistributed contributions and purchases. (No contributions or purchase amounts provided by your employer will be refunded to you.)

Guide B. How do I get a cost statement? What will it say?

First, you must complete sections A through E of this form. Next, route it to the employer you worked for during the omitted or underreported period to complete sections F and G. This employer should submit the completed form to the Retirement Systems Division to verify your eligibility to purchase and then prepare a cost statement. The cost statement gives the cost of the purchase, how much credit it represents, and whether the law permits you to purchase part or all of the eligible period.

Amount of Cost

North Carolina law specifies the methods for determining the cost of credit for an eligible period. The cost of this purchase depends on how long ago your contributions were erroneously omitted or your salary was underreported.

Employers should use regular salary and contributions reporting procedures to make any corrections for a period within 90 days of the omitted service or underreported salary.

Erroneously Omitted Service Purchase Cost

For omitted service, the entire cost is your responsibility.

If your period occurred across the two legally designated time frames described below, your eligible period will be split and costs calculated accordingly.

(1) If payment for omitted service is to be made after 90 days, but within three years of the omitted period: The cost is the actual amount of your salary during the period of time omitted times the employee and employer contribution rates in effect during the period of time omitted, plus interest at a rate equal to the greater of (a) the average yield of the pension accumulation fund for the preceding calendar year or (b) the actuarial investment rate-of-return assumption as adopted by the Board of Trustees, compounded annually, from the beginning date of omission to the date of repayment.

(2) If payment for omitted service is to be made more than three years after the omitted period: The cost of this purchase is the actuarial cost, which is calculated under the same assumptions of interest rates and salary progression as used in the actuarial valuation of the System's liabilities, also taking into account the larger retirement benefit as a result of the purchase starting at the earliest age a member could retire on an unreduced retirement benefit. To get a quick estimate of the cost, use the Service Purchase Estimator available at www.myncretirement.com. Additionally, this purchase requires a $25 administrative fee, which is itemized in the cost statement. The employer may pay any portion of the omitted service purchase cost as long as the employer does not discriminate against any other employees by making this payment.

Underreported Salary Purchase Cost

For underreported salary, the employer is required to pay the employer portion of the cost.

If payment for underreported salary is made more than 90 days after the underreported period:

The cost is the actual amount of your underreported salary times the employee and employer contribution rates in effect during the period your salary was underreported, plus interest at a rate equal to the greater of (a) the average yield of the pension accumulation fund for the preceding calendar year or (b) the actuarial investment rate-of-return assumption as adopted by the Board of Trustees, compounded annually, from the beginning date of underreported salary to the date of repayment.

The employer may pay any portion of the employee interest cost for underreported compensation as long as the employer does not discriminate against any other employees by making this payment.

Please continue to the next page.

Guide B. Continued.*Amount of Credit

The amount of credit you receive depends upon the retirement service type in which you were employed. The retirement service type is determined by counting the total number of months in the regular term of annual employment for an eligible position. Certain community college, school system, and university personnel work under a regular term of annual employment other than the typical 12-month period; these employees spend a length of time working that is shorter than one calendar year, but it is regarded as one year of experience (or credit).

- If you were under a 12-month regular term of annual employment, you will be awarded 1/12 years of service credit for each month of the eligible period.
- If you were under a different regular term of annual employment, you will receive the amount of credit for that month (1/9, 1/10, or 1/11 years of service) that you would have received had you been contributing to the Retirement System during your eligible period.

For omitted service category (2) purchased at actuarial cost, you may choose to purchase all of your eligible credit or you may purchase a portion of it in increments.

Expiration Date of Statement

All cost statements have an expiration date. If you do not make the purchase by that date, the cost of the purchase will have to be recalculated based on the cost method specified by law for the purchase.

FOR THE EMPLOYER: When verify the employee's periods of unreported service/salary.

Retirement credit to be purchased will be counted based on each month a member renders eligible service and receives pay. For retirement service period, report the actual beginning month and ending month of the employee's regular term of annual employment. For retirement service type, report the total of all months during the retirement service period. Certain community college, school system, and university employees have retirement service periods that are less than 12 months annually. For example, a teacher with a retirement service period beginning in August and ending in June is an 11-month retirement service type employee. If the eligible period includes specially-funded service with a program such as CETA or Head Start, report the program name beside the position title.

Guide C. After I receive my cost statement, how do I make a purchase?

Study the impact this purchase may have on your retirement benefit. You may visit www.myncretirement.com to use a web benefits estimator and/or refer to your online member handbook to estimate your retirement benefits with and without the purchase. Or, you may request that the Retirement Systems Division prepare an estimate of retirement benefits for you, a process that generally takes 60 days.

If you choose to make the purchase, you may use pre-tax money from an eligible retirement plan or IRA to make the purchase (see and prepare Form 398 available at www.myncretirement.com). In that case, your plan administrator will give you a check to forward to the Retirement Systems Division. Otherwise, you and perhaps your employer will provide a check to the Retirement Systems Division. All checks for one purchase must be received together. Under certain and limited circumstances, your beneficiary(ies) may complete the purchase process if your death occurs while you are waiting for or evaluating a cost statement.

Guide D. What other types of purchases may be available?

North Carolina retirement law recognizes that you, a participant in one of North Carolina's Retirement Systems, may not have had the opportunity to make contributions and receive credit for certain periods in your public service career. The following list generally describes other circumstances for which a purchase may be allowed.

- Your employer was not eligible to participate in a Retirement System, but you have public service (federal, federally-funded, military, or out-of-state service) that you may be eligible to purchase.
- Your employer did not participate in a System, although it was eligible.
- Your employer did participate in a Retirement System, but your position was not eligible for participation at the time.

- You are or were participating in the Retirement System with your employer, but a life or career event caused your service to be interrupted over a period during which you did not work and make contributions.
- You withdrew your service credit and contributions from the Retirement System, but you wish to restore that credit following a return to contributing service for five years.

Not all purchase types are available in all systems.
