Form 350 Guides Enrolling in the Firefighters' and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund

Guide A. Enrollment requirements.

Eligible Firefighters

To be an "eligible firefighter," you must be 18 or older and belong to a fire department that:

1. is rated by the Fire Insurance Rating Bureau and is certified by the Department of Insurance as not less than a Class "9S" department,
2. files a roster annually with the North Carolina State Firefighters' Association, which is forwarded to the Pension Fund by January 31st each year, and
3. holds training sessions at least 4 hours monthly for which members are required to attend at least 36 hours per year.

Eligible Rescue Squad Workers

To be an "eligible rescue squad worker," you must be 18 or older and belong to a rescue squad that:

1. is eligible for membership in the North Carolina Association of Rescue and Emergency Medical Services Inc., and
2. files a roster annually with the North Carolina Association of Rescue and Emergency Medical Services Inc., which is forwarded to the Pension Fund by January 31st each year.
3. Eligible rescue squad workers must attend a minimum of 36 hours of training sessions each year.

Guide B. When will my enrollment be effective?

Your enrollment will be effective in the month in which the Pension Fund receives your completed Form 350 along with proof of birth and Social Security number and the required first monthly contribution of $15.

Guide C. How much do I contribute each month?

Future $15 contributions for each month of service credit in a calendar year must be received in the Pension Fund office by March 31st of the following year in order to be properly credited.

Contributions are returned or may be applied to the current year if received after March 31st; however, you may be eligible to purchase Pension Fund credit for this service. You will not receive Pension Fund credit for the prior calendar year if your prior year contributions are not received by March 31st of the following year.

Cash is not accepted as a form of payment. The acceptable methods of payment are personal check, money order, or cashier's check.

Guide D. Naming a beneficiary.

A principal beneficiary will be the first person(s) that you select to receive a benefit payment after your death. You may choose one or multiple principal beneficiaries. A contingent beneficiary will be the person(s) who will be paid only if all principal beneficiaries are deceased at the time of your death. You do not have to select any contingent beneficiaries, but if you do, you must select a principal beneficiary.

You have the option to designate as a beneficiary:

- One living person.
- More than one living person to share the benefit equally.
- Your estate. Write ESTATE in the Last Name box under Section B.

Here are some guidelines you should follow when selecting beneficiaries:

- You must supply the name, Social Security number and date of birth for each beneficiary listed.
- Although there is no limit to the number of principal and contingent beneficiaries you may choose, you must choose at least one principal beneficiary before a contingent can be chosen.

- If you list multiple beneficiaries, you may not assign percentages of the benefit to any individual; the benefit will be divided equally among the beneficiaries.
- If you elect multiple beneficiaries, they will only be eligible for the Undistributed Contributions and the Survivorship Benefit will not be an option.
- If you elect you estate a principal beneficiary, your estate will only be eligible for the Undistributed Contributions and the Survivorship Benefit will not be an option.
- Your beneficiary(ies) cannot be an unborn child, a pet, a church, or institution.
- You don't need permission from the beneficiary(ies) to make or change the designation; however, if a court order directs you to designate someone as a beneficiary, you must comply with the order.
- You don't have to make your beneficiary(ies) aware of this designation.
- You don't have to name relatives as beneficiary(ies).
